PROGRAM OVERVIEW

TOPIC 1:

How to Thrive in Challenging Political Times

YM&C's attorney will share strategic steps your charter school or CMO can take to ensure your school(s) thrive should any of the proposed new charter school legislation take effect. This workshop will focus on charter renewals, facilities negotiations, building relationships with school authorizers, and growing in spite of a potential moratorium.

TOPIC 2:

Survive and Thrive Under the New Accountability Systems: Get the Latest Updates on LCAP, Dashboard, and CALPADS

EdTec's experts will cover updates to the LCAP, California School Dashboard, and CALPADS reporting requirements, as well as information about the new federal and state accountability systems.

TOPIC 3:

What a Difference an Employee Handbook Makes!

Learn from YMC's attorney about how to save your school from unnecessary liability, confusion, and disruption by ensuring your Employee Handbook is "as good as it gets."

TOPIC 4:

Getting in Good (Fiscal) Shape for Next School Year

EdTec will provide an overview of recent state funding updates as well as share strategies for managing school site budget challenges and building a stronger budget for 2019-2020. EdTec will also share detailed benchmarking data from charters across the state, helping charter leaders to know where their school stands.

As a leader in charter school representation since the passage of California's Charter Schools Act of 1992, Young, Minney & Corr, LLP offers expertise in every facet of charter school creation, expansion, and operation including charter school petitions and negotiations, renewal and revocations, employment and labor law, board governance, facilities, student issues, policy development and more. YM&C has experience representing more than half of California's charter schools and statewide organizations that support them, and emphasizes a preventative approach to the law.
