Critical Charter School Personnel and Student Services Workshops

PERSONNEL PRESENTATIONS

Surviving the Personnel Gauntlet

Complete advanced “basic” training to be prepared for the most common obstacles faced in the course of the employment relationship, including hiring, evaluations, misconduct investigations, and discipline/termination of charter school employees.

Avoiding Costly Wage Claims at All Costs

Learn to master the complex rules regarding employees who are exempt from overtime laws and develop systems to ensure all employees are both properly classified and managed to avoid costly litigation and monetary penalties.

HOT! HOT! HOT! Examine Cutting-Edge Charter Topics Using Real-Life Charter School “War” Stories

Explore burning questions on the minds of charter school administrators in an interactive format on topics such as:

- STRS Compliance and Audits
- Responding to Union Organizing
- Handling Mental Illness in the Workplace
- Brown Act and Employment Issues
- Credentialing Compliance
- Ripped from the Headlines

Test the Attorneys

Challenge our presenters in a 30-minute “free-for-all” where they take on any labor and employment question raised by attendees.

STUDENT SERVICES PRESENTATIONS

LESSONS LEARNED – PROBLEMS PREVENTED

This year, we will tackle student topics through the lens of actual cases and real-life scenarios providing attendees a glimpse into how a judge might rule and how to avoid the most common legal conundrums. At the end of the day, participate in a 30-minute “free-for-all” where presenters will take on any student services question. Topics to be covered include:

Student Discipline

Implement a lawful student discipline process and understand options for lawfully addressing disability-related misbehavior.

Special Education & Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act

Avoid the most common causes of liability under the IDEA and Section 504.

Student Searches

Protect student constitutional rights by implementing legally appropriate student searches.

Prohibition Against Tuition

Consider the various ways in which a school might be accused of charging unlawful tuition.

Independent Study

Prevent audit exceptions and the resulting loss of funds by avoiding the most common errors.
