Unlawful Financial Conduct in the Charter School Setting

This workshop will explore the changing landscape of state audits, FCMAT audits, Attorney General investigations, Office of Inspector General investigations, and criminal prosecutions for allegedly unlawful uses of charter school funds.

Getting the Best Value for School Facilities

This workshop will help attendees learn how to save costs through better lease negotiations, minimize the cost of facilities loans, and maximize opportunities to obtain funding streams that can reduce facilities costs.

Handling Employee Leaves and Accommodations

This session will provide guidance to assist your school in ensuring it can successfully navigate the complex legal requirements set forth by the Family and Medical Leave Act, California Family Rights Act, Pregnancy Disability Leave laws, the Americans with Disabilities Act, and the Fair Employment and Housing Act.

Addressing Disruptive Parents and Visitors on Campus

This session will discuss legal options and practical tips for responding effectively to disruptive parents and maximizing the safety of your campus.
