Christy Feldman works on the YM&C Student Services Team to assist schools in day-to-day special education compliance, student rights & discipline, and independent study. Christy previously represented the Metropolitan Government of Nashville and Davidson County, serving public clients, including the Metropolitan Nashville Public Schools, Library, Human Relations Commission, and Arts Commission. This legal experience included due process defense, student discipline, and governance and employment matters counseling. Christy also worked in the Employee Relations Division for the City and County of San Francisco.

Christy received her B.A. in Classical Civilizations from the University of North Carolina. And Christy received her J.D. from Vanderbilt University Law School. She is an incredibly loyal fan of the University of North Carolina Tarheels men's basketball team – and thinks March Madness should be a holiday.

Outside of YM&C, Christy is active at her children's school, supporting art and diversity efforts.
