Erica Shubin presently specializes in special education law. Preceding her tenure at Young, Minney & Corr, LLP, Erica dedicated her expertise to non-profit entities within the special education services sector. Additionally, she collaborated with organizations leveraging media, arts, and film as powerful tools for illuminating critical social issues through creating documentary films, educational curricula, and artistic endeavors. Noteworthy, Erica is the visionary behind several minority-owned enterprises in the financial domain, overseeing client accounts and establishing a robust network of similarly-owned law firms to cater to the financial industry nationally.
